

Jeffrey T. Liegner, M.D.

Dr Liegner has been performing LASIK/PRK since its beginning in mid-1990's and has performed many thousand surgeries to correct common and unusual refractive errors. For nearly three decades, he has been active with his ophthalmic surgical practice, teaching at specialty meetings across the globe, and innovating new patented formulations to improve and enhance cataract and refractive surgery. He is a retired US Air Force officer having served as a research physicist and flight surgeon, a Senior Aviation

Medical Examiner (AME) for the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), and an instrumented rated pilot and aircraft homebuilder.

EDUCATION & TRAINING

- Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Physics from Duke University in Durham, North Carolina
 - Medical Degree (MD) from University of Texas Health Science Center in San Antonio, Texas
 - Ophthalmology Residency at University of Texas Health Science Center in San Antonio, Texas
- Ophthalmology societies including the American Academy of Ophthalmology.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS & HONORS

- Fellow, American Academy of Ophthalmology
- Member, American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgery
- Fellow, American Board of Ophthalmology
- Diplomate, National Board of Physicians and Surgeons